Essay Writing for Competitive Examinations-all Types ,css,pcs,etc Agha Humayun Amin, 2014-03-31 English essay remains a simple but subtle test of a man's mental caliber. Since essay was discovered by Sir Francis Bacon and improved and refined by countless writers, English essay has remained a good judge of any aspiring candidate for public or private sector jobs and posts. For many years the only standard of judging military staff college candidates was simply one essay from which their analytical and communication skills were judged. In competitive examinations in third world countries English Essay takes the highest toll in failures, as a subject. Thus English essay possesses the notorious distinction of being the sword of Damocles for a very large number of competitive examination candidates. The aim of this brief work is to serve as a primer or as a study aid for competitive examination candidates worldwide but more specifically South and West Asia. When I joined the Pakistan Military Academy in 1981 I discovered that English took the maximum toll of cadets who were relegated or failed in the first two terms. When I appeared and qualified in the CSS competitive examination in 1987 and 1989 I again discovered that English Essay remained CSS candidates Bermuda Triangle of failure. Mr Syed Zafar Bukhari who I met in Multan in 1987 during his attachment as a civil service academy student with Pakistan Army was very fond of discussing how CSS candidates mostly failed in English essay. My early interest in writing articles since 1977 motivated me to read great masters of essay like Francis Bacon who off course was the greatest master, as well as Montaigne, Bertrand Russell etc.

High School Essays N.C. Sinha,2021-01-19 Essay is basically the act of 'trying out... or an act of attempting to accomplish something. It is also an analytic or interpretive literary composition. Essays; therefore; essentially reveal the personality of the writer besides giving his/her viewpoints on a specific subject matter. Essays help us express ourselves; our thoughts; our ideas and our perceptions about things we are associated with or about things we are impacted with or wish to have an impact on. Essays not only provide the required space and tool; they also let us leisurely saunter along. Tweeting or emailing cannot achieve this. This answers why we should write essays. We should write because we cannot always speak out minds coherently. There is no fixed length of an essay. It could be written in just about 100 words or even in several thousand words. Generally speaking; essays are not very long. But they need not be too small either. On an average; an essay in one thousand words should be adequate. A range of 1,000 to 1,500 is generally accepted as ideal for competitive exams and that is the length of the majority of the essays in this book.
